My important day

By Beth Falla

Last Wednesday was an important day in my life.

I ¹ had to have

(have) an interview for a new school. It's a special college for Art and Design and it's something that I really want to do. The week before,

I ² had to choose (choose) my best artwork, and I ³ had to put (put) it all into a special folder, and I ⁴ had to prepare (prepare) to talk about it in the interview.

On Wednesday morning, I ⁵ didn't have to go

(not / go) to school. The interview was at 11 a.m.

My mum ⁶ had to drive (drive) me to the college and she waited with me. I was very nervous, so I ⁷ had to take (take) deep breaths to try to relax. We ⁸ didn't have to wait (not / wait) long, which was good. Then the interview started. I ⁹ had to answer (answer) a lot of questions and they looked at all my artwork carefully.

At the end, they told me I ¹⁰ didn't have to worry

(not / worry) because I had a place at the college!

I was so happy! That afternoon my mum and I went out for lunch to celebrate.
